The Mission of Southeastern Free Will Baptist College:
*To prepare men and women
for the work of the ministry.*

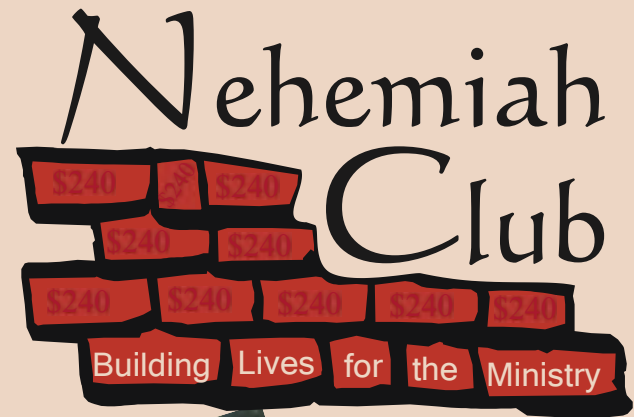

- Only about 60% of the college budget comes from students' tuition and fees.
- Our desire is to keep student costs as low as possible.
- We receive no government aid.
- To fulfill our mission we must build a foundation of support that is consistent year after year.
- In partnering with our great alumni, we all can foster the goals, ideas, and support into the total Southeastern experience.

Let's work together to fill the Nehemiah Club with an army of donors to make this happen.

WILL YOU BE A CAPTAIN?

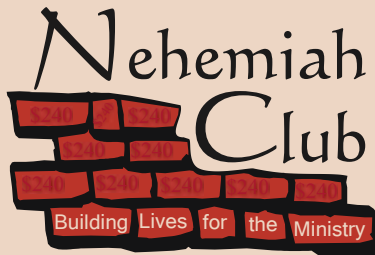

OUR ENLISTMENT GOALS:

50 Captains enlist 30 Donors each
= 1500 Donors @ $20 per month.
This will bring in over $300,000 per year!

WE WANT YOU
To Help Build Lives!

Mrs. Dolly Stox
Founder - Nehemiah Club

I want to be used by God. No matter what I have been involved in - family, home, church, or the college - I have looked for a way to be useful - a way to help. That's why I am so excited about the Nehemiah Club.

It takes a lot of money to operate a ministry the size and scope of Southeastern. One or two individuals cannot do it alone. However, hundreds, actually thousands, each giving a little at a time, can.

Yes, we need thousands to give. We want to find those thousands beginning with the first 1500 but we cannot do it alone. We are on a mission to find 50 willing souls who will share our vision and burden and become Captains in the Nehemiah Club to help enlist these donors who will become an army of Nehemiah Club members.

As a Captain you will join a small group who can make a huge difference. I will not act so much as your leader, but your partner. I will guide you, encourage you, pray for you, and facilitate your needs in this vital task.

This program can also partner with the personal giving of each alumnus to reach the expanded goals of the Alumni Association in scholarship funding and meeting other needs at the college. The Alumni Association Officers will be contacting the alumni with more details

Thank you for considering this challenge. Please pray carefully and earnestly that God may lead you in these important days.
